Extravaganza a huge success

The Elk Point Chamber of Commerce Christmas Countdown Extravaganza last Tuesday had been declared a huge success by the organizers, participating merchants, and the crowds of people who braved snow and icy winds to attend the evening.

Hub of the evening's activities was a roaring bonfire on main street, just north of 49 Avenue, where groups of carolers came to sing, friends paused to chat, and the Chamber executive distributed contest entry forms as filled bingo cards were turned in. Elk point Volunteer Fire Department members kept a watchful eye on the fire as they displayed their rescue van and its comprehensive emergency equipment nearby.

Four local teamsters, pulling racks laden with hay, provided rides for hordes of young and old throughout the evening. Santa, his elves, and furry friends Bucky Beaver, Toco the Owl and Wumpity Wump also piled on the racks for a ride, in between their visits to the stores.

Last - minute shoppers crowded the stores, finding numerous clearance sales and marked - down merchandise on offer, and entering their names for in - store draws. We will try to have a list of these winners for next week's issue.

Many of the youngsters visited the old Courthouse, where free video movies were shown throughout the evening, courtesy of the local video outlets.

The bingo-format contest proved very popular, with both the adult draw drum and the under - 18 draw box packed with entries by draw time, shortly after 11:30 p.m. Both Helene Madill, a holiday visitor from Sorrento, B.C., winner of the trip for 2 to Las Vegas, and Ruth Stone of Elk Point, winner of a crisp $100 bill, had collected stamps from the entire roster of businesses for a black out, and deposited 7 entries in the drum.

Children's draw winners were Vicky Votour of Elk Point, who won an Alf doll, Loretta Quinney of Frog Lake and Doug Irvine of Lindberg, who each won a Treasury Branch Toco the Owl. All prizes were presented Wednesday afternoon.

One certain indication of the success of the first-ever event, were the conversations between business people and chamber members the next day, which tended to echo one theme: "Next year, why don't we..."

LAS VEGAS TRIP WINNER — Helene Madill, a holiday visitor to Elk Point from Sorrento, B.C., accepts her prize of a trip to Las Vegas from Elk Point Chamber of Commerce President Ed Buck. Mrs. Madill had a blackout bingo, and therefore 7 entries in the Christmas Extravaganza draw box.

Christmas lighting, decorating winners

The winners of the 1987 Chamber of Commerce Christmas Lighting and Decorating contest have been chosen, with the judges agreeing that the many very attractive businesses and homes made the decision a difficult one.

A gold-garlanded interior and window decor featuring multicolored lights, miniature sleighs, reindeer and camels won first place in the Commercial category for Dave's Pizza. Proprietor Sharon Smith says the $25 prize will be shared among the crew who did such a talented job of decorating the restaurant.

Snow-laden trees, glimmering with tiny lights, highlighted the windows at second-prize-winning Capitol Drugs. Their interior was also festooned with multicolored tinsel swags for a very appealing overall effect.

Third prize in the Commercial category went to the Toronto Dominion Bank, with their frosted, arch-topped windows and sparkling tree. Honorable mentions in the category went to Millie's Flowers, with a spruce-banked window full of poinsettias closely resembling a Christmas card scene, and to the Treasury Branch, whose interior decorations included a whole Santa's Workshop scene.

In the Residential division, Pauline Pankiw's pink and white color scheme drew the judges' eyes for first prize, while Andy Mikitka's snowmen, Holy family and Santa Claus couple, highlighted with spotlights and strings of multicolored lights, placed second. Third place went to Nick Melnyk whose home was outlined with glowing green lights. Earning honorable mentions were Brian Schnurer, whose home was outlined with multicolored lights, Emil Mudryk, with his collection of lights and figures both in front and back yards, and Bruce Kleeberger, with his tall columns of colored lights flanking a glowing "Noel".

The Chamber would like to thank all the businesses and residents who took time to decorate their premises so colorfully, and thus light up all our lives in a very festive way.

Pioneer Circle considers expansion

By Irene Magnusson

Board members who gathered December 8, at 6:30 p.m., for their monthly meeting, had 'plans' to consider. Following the usual reading of previous minutes by secretary Marg Clark, and a resume of the financial situation as revealed by treasurer Erika Bender, the serious business of planning the Christmas party for Elk Point's Pioneer Circle seniors got underway.

Bender's report showed that, with addition of funds raised at the Mini-Mart, sale of raffle tickets on the donated afghan, and the provincial government grant, the building fund is now $6800 plus - a good start. Bingo income and costs were gone through, income from care of the campsite was added in, hall expenses paid.

The Christmas supper, set for Tuesday, December 15, will be catered, and for members only. A good number of tickets have been sold, ensuring a nice crowd, and entertainment will be arranged.

It was agreed members will gather on Sunday to decorate the hall. Door prizes will be drawn for. And, of course, the afghan will be awarded to the lucky ticket holder. This handmade useful article was created and donated by Mrs. Anne Buck. Several ladies offered articles for door prizes. Christmas party plans seemed to be sailing smoothly along.

Not quite the same can be said for the Building Committee plans. Research has shown that extending the hall along the north side is impractical, as there is insufficient room. The same applies to extending along the south side, and again a problem with the joining of roofs. Reverting back to the original plan offered, of an addition on the west end, not much enthusiasm was shown for that idea.

The most readily acceptable plan would be to build a new facility - IF finances would allow. The matter was put on hold until the January 12, 1988, meeting when it is hoped that ALL members (and prospective members) will come to the hall, and voice their thoughts and ideas, so a consensus can be arrived at. What do the members want? What will they be willing to work for? What do they expect - or would like to see - programmed for the hall?

It was also pointed out, that if the grant (now in hand) is not used in two years time, it must be returned to the department. Also, without a firm plan to work toward, serious fundraising is hard to undertake.

So with one project 'on hold' and the other on 'go', chairman Mike Palinka declared the meeting adjourned. Coffee was on tap, while many members dashed out to participate in the bingo next door.

Elk Point Scouting report

On December 1, 1987, the Boy Scouts celebrated their annual investiture ceremony. Eight Cubs, five Beavers and one Scout were invested, which means, they took part in a simple ceremony, during which the boys repeated their Wolf Cub Promise and became a full member of the Boy Scouts of Canada. Roxanne Ringuette, District Commissioner, officiated the well attended meeting and led the parents and boys in a sing song afterwards. Everyone gladly participated in the games and enjoyed the refreshments served by the boys. Other activities performed by Beavers, Cubs and Scouts during this month of December were: Christmas orientated crafts, skating in the arena, a visit to the fire hall, caroling and Christmas parties. One of the upcoming events in the new year will be a bottle drive scheduled for January 10, 1988. Our Christmas-tree-sale has been successful and a hearty thank you goes out to everyone who supported us in this respect. There are, however, two days left for those who still wish to order a spruce tree for Christmas.

The Boy Scouts will cut and deliver them to your house at a cost of $2.00 per foot. Please phone: 724-3037 or 724-3989 for any order. Saturday Dec. 19, 1987 will be or last delivery day.

The next group committee meeting to which all parents are most welcome, will be held in the Scout Hall on January 5, 1988, at 7:30 p.m.

A final remark concerns our need for another beaver leader. Please phone Orest Sereda, 724-3735, if you are interested in assisting him. Thank you.

I hope everyone had a very Merry Christmas and enough R&R to last well into the New Year. December has been a fun month. A group of us went Christmas carolling December 16. There was a good turn out, about 20 in all. We stopped in at various households and visited many of our seniors. A warm thank-you to all who opened their doors, gave out treats, and listened to our off key carols! A special thank-you to Donna Gulayc for putting up with a houseful of zany kids bubbling with Christmas spirit. Thank-you, Joe Brunner for volunteering your time and your bus on this occasion.

Congratulations to the Chamber of Commerce for their successful

Christmas extravaganza on Tuesday December 22. Many thanks to all the helpful parents who were at the Old Court House that Tuesday to move and settle the kids. An extra-special thanks to Mike Habiak and company for being there and ducking the popcorn. Great work, guys. Another warm thank-you to the United Church for the use of their T.V., Video Point for the use of "Harry and the Hendersons", and Rhondaray for the VCR, Ghost Fever, and the popcorn. And a sincere thank-you to Pat Vincent for being a hero! Thanks again everyone.

Kids, don't forget about the dance on January 8. Remember you can contact me at 724-3800.

Happy New Year.

On Thursday Dec. 10, 1987, the Elk Point 4-H Multi-Beef Club met for their monthly meeting which was held at the F.G. Miller school at 7:30 p.m.

The meeting started by having the pledge recited and roll call was replied by answering "What our plans are for Christmas".

The meeting proceeded by having reports read. Our club held a dance, organized a Christmas party for Dec. 13, 1987, and planned an invitational volleyball tournament for Jan. 30, 1988.

We would like to congratulate Jeff

Orr who won first prize for his project book at the regional level and now goes on to provincials.

The club would like to thank St. Paul Sales & Service for letting us use a camper trailer to sell lunch at LaFrance's sale, and to LaFrance's for asking us to sell lunch.

Following the multi meeting was the Beef project meeting. We discussed the grain, hay and straw prices for our calves and the record looks which we will be going over at the next meeting.

A new year, a new way

After three years and nine months of free distribution, the Lakeland Review is changing to subscription and newsstand sales. This is the final issue which will automatically appear in everyone's mailbox throughout the area.

Fast-rising costs of production, publication and distribution have made it necessary to charge our readers for their papers. However, the change to a subscription basis will lower our postage costs and permit us to offer subscriptions at a very reasonable cost of $13.00 within the local zone (including a much wider area than our previous free distribution zone) and $16.00 outside the zone. That means that you can buy a subscription for yourself and one for cousin Matilda in Edmonton for $1.00 less than you paid for cousin Matilda's subscription last year, when it cost $30.00.

The paper will also be available in many of your favorite stores in the area.

We sincerely hope that you have enjoyed reading the Lakeland Review, and will continue to do so in 1988.

A happy and prosperous New Year to all.

Community-style Christmas

There's something about a small-town Christmas...

Greeting friends and relatives who have come home for the big day, kids home from college for the holidays, running downtown to pick up those last minute gifts, stopping for coffee with friends, enjoying the colorfully decorated stores...

Add to this a roaring bonfire in the middle of Main Street, groups of carolers with their voices sweet and true on the old familiar words, horse-drawn wagons laden with young and not-so-young passengers touring the streets with a jingle of harness bells...

Last Tuesday's Christmas Countdown Extravaganza was a roaring success. The merchants, whose stores were packed throughout the evening, the lucky winners of the bingo-card draw, the many residents of town and surrounding area who flocked to downtown Elk Point for the occasion, in spite of the blustery cold evening, agree.

A very good time was had by all, thanks to the outstanding cooperation by the businesses, and the enthusiastic participation by all the entertainers, shoppers and hopeful bingo players.

Let's do it again next year!

WINTER WORK FOR SUMMER FUN — F.G. Miller Industrial Arts teacher Blaine Easthope and his students have been busy constructing benches, tables and firepits for the new park under construction at the north

Obedience class graduates

By Corey Williams

Sunday, November 29 was graduating night for the ten dogs and handlers who attended the Dog Obedience Classes, held in Elk Point and instructed by Karen Reed. The dogs and handlers all waited nervously for their individual testing, when they were required to show what they had learned in the 10 weeks of training.

In those ten weeks the dogs were required to learn how to heel on leash, to automatic sit (when the handler stops walking the dog should automatically sit beside his master until commanded to move), to sit and stay on command until told to move by the handler, to lie down and stay on command until told to move, to recall (come and sit in front of the handler), to finish (after being recalled, the dog should, on a hand signal, walk around his master and sit on the master's left hand side), to walk a figure eight around people without sniffing or bothering the people, and to stand and stay while being inspected by the judge.

All of those attending the first and graduating class would agree that these handlers and dogs can be proud of their achievements in the ten weeks of training, there was definitely a marked improvement on the part of all participants.

The Dog Obedience Class would like to thank Karen Reed for her instruction and patience. Congratulations to all dogs and handlers, you deserve a hand for your hard work and it all paid off.

A WELL BEHAVED GROUP — Of dogs and their owners at the Obedience School graduation ceremonies.

Look like they'd never chase another cat, don't they?

Tulliby Lake 4-H news

By Elisa Gibbard

Well, this year is quickly coming to an end. The Tulliby Lake 4-H Club had its last meeting for 1987 on Dec. 2 at 7:30 in the Communiplex.

In the general meeting much was discussed and accomplished. Our annual tree-cutting day will be Sunday, Dec. 13 at 1 p.m., followed by hot dogs and hot chocolate. The Christmas trees will be on sale at the D & D Grocery Store in Marwayne. The Dewberry 4-H Club has invited us to one of their meetings and we are looking forward to going.

Before the Craft Club went to their separate meeting, two of its members, Donna Kipps and Wendy Ward, gave a demonstration on macrame. Then they planned a Christmas party to be held on Dec. 16 at 7 p.m. at the home of the club leader, Mrs. G. Ward. Their activity for this meeting was color charts, and the activity at the party will be color wheels.

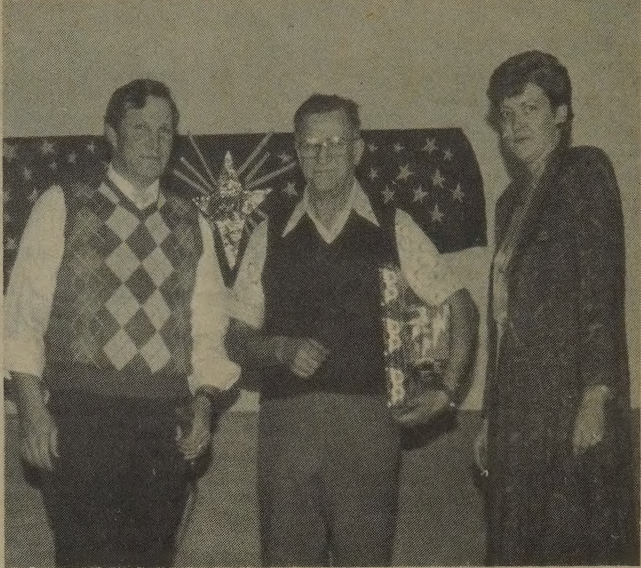

The Beef Club was glad to have two new members join. They are Robin Hines and Corey Hines. These two new members are going to represent our club at a grooming and showmanship demonstration in the spring.

The next meeting will be on Wednesday, January 6, 1988. All members please come with ideas for improving club displays on Achievement Day.

Thanks to the Elk Point Municipal Hospital staff and Elk Point Ambulance staff. A special thank you to Dr. Estey and L. Demchuk.

In Memoriam

BABENEK, FRED

In loving memory of my dear husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather, Fred Babenek, who passed away one year ago today, January 2, 1987.

There was not time to say good-bye,
The day you went away.
You left us all so suddenly,
One year ago today.
We think of you in silence,
We often speak your name.
But all we have are memories,
And your picture in our minds.
Our hearts still ache with sadness,
And silent tears still flow.
For what it meant to lose you,
No one will ever know.

Always loved and sadly missed by your wife Nettie and family.
